THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013
(COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES)
Incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF
THE HI-TECH GEARS LIMITED

The following regulations comprised in these Articles of Association, in conformity with Companies Act, 2013, were adopted at the 29th Annual General Meeting of the Company held at 11:00 am on Tuesday, 29th September, 2015 at the registered office of the Company in substitution for, and to the entire exclusion of, the earlier regulations comprised in the extant Articles of Association of the Company.

PRELIMINARY

1. No regulations contained in Table F in the schedule I of the Companies Act, 2013 shall apply to this Company, except in so far as the same are repeated, contained or expressly made applicable in these Articles or by the said Act. But the regulations for the management of the Company and for the observance by the members thereto and their representatives, shall, subject to any exercise of the statutory powers of the Company with reference to the deletion or alteration of or addition to its regulations by resolution as prescribed or permitted by the Companies Act, 2013, be such as are contained in these Articles. Further, these Articles are subject to the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 & where there is no specific provision mentioned in Articles, provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 will be applicable.

INTERPRETATION

2. In these Articles —
 - a) "Act" means the Companies Act, 2013 and/or wherever required read with Rules.
 - b) "In Writing" and "Written" shall includes printing, lithography and other mode or modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.
 - c) "Person" includes corporations, firms and individual.
 - d) "Rules" means appropriate rules issued pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Act.
 - e) "Seal" means the common seal of the Company.
 - f) "The presents" or "Regulations" means these Articles of Association as originally framed or altered from time to time and includes the Memorandum of Association of the Company where the context so requires.

Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expression contained in these Regulations shall bear the same meaning as in the Act & Rules made thereunder or any Statutory modification thereof in force.

Words imparting the singular number shall include the plural number, and vice-versa.

CAPITAL, CLASSES OF SHARES AND INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

3. The Authorised Share Capital of the Company is as mentioned in Clause V of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with power of the Board of Directors to sub-divide, consolidate and increase and with power from time to time, issue any shares of the original capital with and subject to any preferential, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions as may be, thought fit, and upon the sub-division of shares apportion the right to participate in profits in any manner as between the shares resulting from sub-division.
4. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the shares in the capital of the company shall be under the control of the Board who may issue, allot or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them to such persons, in such proportion and on such terms and conditions and either at a premium or at par and at such time as they may from time to time think fit.
5. The Company from time to time increases its authorized share capital in accordance with the provision of Companies Act, 2013.
 - i) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder and whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the such number of the holders of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class, as prescribed by the Act.
 - ii) To every such separate meeting, the provisions of these articles relating to general meetings shall mutatis mutandis apply.
7. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking paripassu therewith.
8. Subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder, any preference shares may, with the sanction of resolution, be issued on the terms that they are to be redeemed on such terms and in such manner as the company before the issue of the shares may, by resolution, determine.

SHARES AND CERTIFICATE

9. The Company may issue the following kinds of shares in accordance with these Article, the Act, the Rules and other applicable laws:
 - a. Equity Share Capital
 - i) With voting rights; and/or
 - ii) With differential rights as to dividend, voting or otherwise in accordance with the Act, the Rules, amended from time to time; and
 - b. Preference Share Capital

The above shares may further be segregated into ordinary, sweat, ESOP, ESPS, etc as may be decided by the Board pursuant to the provisions of the Act and rules made thereunder, amended from time to time.

10. The Company shall have right to issue shares on preferential basis, right basis or otherwise, subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder.
11. The shares in the capital shall be numbered progressively and no share shall be subdivided.
12. The money (if any) which the board shall, on the allotment of any shares being made by it, require or direct to be paid by way of deposit, call or otherwise, in respect of any shares allotted by it shall immediately on the inscription of the name or the allottee or the Register of Members as the name of the holder of such shares, become a debt due to and recoverable by the Company from the allottee, there of and shall be paid by him accordingly.
13. Every member, or his executors, administrators or other legal representative, shall pay to the Company a proportion of the capital represented by his share which may for the time being remain unpaid, in such amounts, at such time or times, and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time, in accordance with the Company's regulations require or fix for the payment thereof.
14. Except as required by law, no person shall be recognized by the company as holding any share upon any trust, and the company shall not be bound by, or be compelled in any way to recognize (even when having notice thereof) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share, or any interest in any fractional part of a share, or (except only as by these regulations or by law otherwise provided) any other rights in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder.
15. i) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the register of members shall be entitled to receive within the time prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder after incorporation, in case of subscribers to the memorandum or after allotment or within specified time period after the application for the registration of transfer or transmission or within such other period as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder as the conditions of issue shall be provided,—
 - a. one certificate for all his shares without payment of any charges; or
 - b. The Company may charge fee for several certificates, each for one or more of his shares, upon payment of fee as may be prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder for each certificate after the first.
- ii) Every certificate shall be under the seal and shall specify the shares to which it relates and the amount paid-up thereon.
- iii) In respect of any share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company shall not be bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders shall be sufficient delivery to all such holders.
16. i) If any share certificate be worn out, defaced, mutilated or torn or if there be no further space on the back for endorsement of transfer, then upon production and surrender thereof to the company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu thereof, and if any certificate is lost or destroyed then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the company and on execution of such indemnity, affidavits, police report or any other document as the Board deem adequate, a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given. Every certificate under this Article may be issued on payment of fees for each certificate as may be fixed by the Board or the regulations from time to time.

ii) The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to other securities of the company.

UNDERWRITING AND BROKERAGE

17. i) The company may exercise the powers of paying commissions as per the Act, provided that the rate per cent or the amount of the commission paid or agreed to be paid shall be disclosed in the manner required by that act and rules made thereunder.

ii) The rate or amount of the commission shall not exceed the rate or amount prescribed in the Act & Rules made thereunder.

iii) The commission may be satisfied by the payment of cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

CALLS

18. i) The Board may, from time to time, make calls upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on their shares (whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium or by way of discount) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times.

ii) Each member shall, subject to receiving specified number of days notice as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder specifying the time or times and place of payment, pay to the company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his shares.

iii) A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

19. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing the call was passed and may be required to be paid by installments.

20. The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect thereof. However notice in this regard to be sent only to the first holder.

21. i) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment thereof, the person from whom the sum is due shall pay interest thereon from the day appointed for payment thereof to the time of actual payment at such rate as may be fixed by the Board.

ii) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest wholly or in part.

22. i) Any sum which by the terms of issue of a share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or by way of discount, shall, for the purposes of these articles, be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which by the terms of issue such sum becomes payable.

ii) In case of non-payment of such sum, all the relevant provisions of these articles as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

23. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any Shareholder or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his Share, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was, when the claim arose, on the Register as a holder, or one of the holders of the number of Shares in respect of which such claim is made and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Board who made any call, nor that a quorum was present at the Board meeting at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted nor any other matter whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
24. Neither a judgment nor a decree in favour of the Company for calls or other moneys due in respect of any shares, nor part payment of satisfaction thereunder; nor the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member in respect of any shares by way of either principal or Interest, nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of the payment of any money, shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.
25. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the monies uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by him; and upon all or any of the monies so advanced, may (until the same would, but for such advance, become presently payable) pay interest at such rate as may be fixed by the Board.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

26. If a member fails to pay any call, or installment of a call, on the day appointed for payment of the same, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment remains unpaid give notice requiring him to pay the same together with any interest which may have accrued.
27. The notice shall name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of specified days as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.
28. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
29. When any share shall have been so forfeited notice of forfeiture shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof shall forthwith be made in the Register of Member or Members; but no such forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
30. The forfeiture of a share involves extinction, at the time of the forfeiture, of all interest in and claims and demands against the Company in respect of the shares and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.

31. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed off on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit. At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
32. A member whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares. The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
33. The forfeiture of a share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and also of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the forfeited shares and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
34. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager, Key Managerial Personnel or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited in accordance with these Articles on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;
35. The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed off. The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share. The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
36. The provisions of these articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium or by way of discount, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
 - i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.
 - ii) The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares comprised in any such transfer.
 - iii) The purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
 - i) The company shall have a first and paramount lien—
 - a. on every share (not being a fully paid share), for all monies (whether presently payable or not) called, or payable at a fixed time, in respect of that share; and

- b. on all shares (not being fully paid shares) standing registered in the name of a member, for all monies presently payable by him or his estate to the company:

Provided that the Board of directors may at any time declare any share to wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this clause.

- ii) The company's lien, if any, on a share shall extend to all dividend bonuses declared from time to time in respect of such shares.
39. The company may sell, in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the company has a lien Provided that no sale shall be made—
- i) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; or
 - ii) until the expiration of specified days as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder after a notice in writing stating and demanding payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or the person entitled thereto by reason of his death or insolvency or otherwise.
40. i) The proceeds of the sale shall be received by the company and applied in payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.
- ii) The residue, if any, shall, subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.
41. Where any Share under the powers in that behalf herein contained is sold by the Board and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holder of such Share, the Board may issue a new certificate for such Share distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate not so delivered.

TRANSFER & TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

42. The company shall cause to be kept a Register and Index of Members in accordance with all applicable provisions of the act and the Depositories Act 1996 and any other law for the time being in force with details of shares held in physical and dematerialized forms in any medium as may be permitted by law, including in any form of electronic medium. The company shall be entitled to keep in any state or country outside India, a branch Register of Members resident in that state or country.
43. Shares available in electronic medium can be transferred subject to the provisions of the Depository Act, 1996 & Rules made thereunder by using appropriate electronic medium. A common form of transfer shall be used in case of transfer of physical shares. The instrument of transfer shall be in writing as per the provisions of the Act and of any statutory modification thereof for the time being shall be duly complied with in respect of all transfer of shares and the registration thereof.
44. i) The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.

ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.

45. Subject to the provisions of the Act, these Articles and other applicable provisions of the Act or any other Law for the time being in force, the Directors may refuse whether in pursuance of any power of the company under these articles or otherwise to register the transfer of or the transmissions by operation of law of the right to any shares or interest of a member in or debentures of the Company. The Company shall within time specified under the Act & Rule made thereunder from the date of which the instrument of transfer or the intimation of such transmission, as the case may be was delivered to the company, send notice of the refusal to the transferee and the transferor or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, as the case may be, giving reason for such refusal. Provided that the registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except where the company has a lien on shares. Transfer of shares/debentures in whatever lot shall not be refused.
46. Where in the case of partly paid shares an application for registration is made by the transferor the company shall give notice of the application to the transferee in accordance with the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder.
47. On giving not less than specified days as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder previous notice in accordance with the act and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than specified days as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder at any one time or for more than specified days as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder in the aggregate in any year.

The instrument of transfer shall after registration retained by the Company and shall remain in its custody, all instruments of transfer which the Board has decided to register shall on demand be returned to the persons depositing the same. The Board may cause to be destroyed all instruments of transfer lying with the Company for a period of more than specified years as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder.

48. In the case of the death of any one or more of the persons named in the Register of Members as the joint-holders of any share, the survivor or survivors shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to or interest in such share but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability on shares held by him jointly with any other.
49. i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—
- a. to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
 - b. to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.

- ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had himself transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
50. i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these Articles relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
51. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:
- Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied within time specified under the Act & Rule made thereunder, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
52. No transfer or transmission fee would be charged
53. The company shall incur no liability whatsoever in consequence of its registration or giving effect, to any transfer of share made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown on appearing in the Register of members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right, title or interest. to or in the said shares, notwithstanding that the company may have had notice of such equitable rights, title or interest or notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have entered such notice on referred there on in any book of the company and the company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability for refusing or neglecting so to do, though it may have been entered or referred to in some book of the company but the company though not bound so to do shall be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto if the Board shall so think fit.
54. The provisions of these Articles relating to transmission by operation of law shall mutatis mutandis apply to any other securities including debentures & preference shares of the Company.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

55. Subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder, the company may, by ordinary resolution,—

- i) Increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount as it thinks expedient;
- ii) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
- iii) convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock, and reconvert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination;
- iv) sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum;
- v) cancel any shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

56. Subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder, where shares are converted into stock,—

- i) the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same articles under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

- ii) the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
- iii) such of the articles of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder/member" shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.

57. The company may, by resolution as prescribed by the Act, reduce in any manner and in accordance with provisions of the Act and the Rules notified thereunder, including consent required by law,—

- i) Its share capital; and/or
- ii) Any capital redemption reserve account; and/or
- iii) Any share premium account; and/or
- iv) Any other reserve in the nature of share capital.

Rules made thereunder and shall vote only once.

77. i) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.
- ii) For this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members.
78. A member of unsound mind, or in respect of whom an order has been made by any court having jurisdiction in lunacy, may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by his committee or other legal guardian, and any such committee or guardian may, on a poll, vote by proxy.
79. Any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll.
80. No member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by him in respect of shares in the company have been paid.
81. i) No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered, and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.
- ii) Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the Chairperson of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.
82. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power-of-attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarized copy of that power or authority, shall be deposited at the office of the company not less than specified time period under the Act before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote, or, in the case of a poll, not less than specified time period under the Act before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
83. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the form as prescribed in the Act & Rules made thereunder.
84. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid, notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or the revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given:
- Provided that no intimation in writing of such death, insanity, revocation or transfer shall have been received by the company at its office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the proxy is used.

DIRECTORS

85. The number of Directors of the Company shall not be less than three (3) and not more than that mentioned in the Act.

Provided that the Company may appoint more than the prescribed number of directors, after compliance of applicable provision of the Act.

The composition of the Board of Directors will be in consonance with the Act and other applicable statutes.

86. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Company may from time to time increase or reduce the number of Directors within the limits fixed by these Articles.

87. i) Subject to the Act and these Articles, the Directors not exceeding one-third of the total number of Directors for the time being of the Company shall be liable to retirement by rotation. The Independent Directors shall not be counted in the total number of Directors for this purpose.

ii) Subject to the provisions of Articles and provisions of the Act, all Directors other than the Directors who are not retiring by rotation, additional/ alternate/ Independent Directors shall be persons whose period of office is liable to determination by retirement by rotation.

88. a. in attending and returning from meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee thereof or general meetings of the company; or

b. in connection with the business of the company.

93. If a Director is required to reside at any place in India or abroad other than his usual residence on the company's business, or otherwise perform extra services, the Board may subject to the provisions of the Act, arrange with such Director for such special remuneration for such services, either by way of salaries, commissions or payments of a stated sum or sums of money as it shall think fit, in additions to or in substitution for his remuneration above provided, and may provide housing accommodations for him and all other necessities at the cost of the Company.

94. The continuing Directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board, but subject to the provisions of the Act, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act or these Articles for a meeting of the Board, notwithstanding the absence of a quorum the continuing Directors may act for the purpose of summoning a general-meeting or a meeting of the holders of a class or classes of shares but for no other purpose.

95. Subject to the provisions of the Act, no Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either as vendor, purchase, agent broker or otherwise, nor shall any such contract, or any arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director shall be in any way interested, be avoided, nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by any such contract or arrangement by reason only of such Director holding that office, or of the fiduciary relation thereby established, but it is declared that the nature of his interest must be disclosed by him as provided by the Act.

96. The Company may remove any Director other than directors nominated pursuant to these Articles before the expiration of his period of office in accordance with the provisions of the Act and may appoint another person instead of the Director so removed was appointed by the Company in a General Meeting or by the Board.

97. If any Director appointed by the Company in a General Meeting vacates office as a Director before his term of office expires in the normal course, the resulting casual vacancy may be filled up by the Board, but any person so appointed shall retain his office so long only as the vacating Director would have retained the same if no vacancy has occurred. Provided that the Board may not fill such a vacancy by appointing thereto any person who has been removed from the office of Director.

98. The eligibility and appointment of a person other than a retiring Director to the office of Director shall be governed by the provisions of the Act.
99. The Board may in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the Act, appoint any person to act as alternate Director for a Director during the latter's absence for a period of not less than specified months from India as prescribed under the Act & Rules made thereunder. No Person shall be appointed as alternate director to an Independent Director unless he is qualified to be appointed as Independent Director under the provisions of the Act.
100. The Board may pay all expenses incurred in getting up and registering the company.
101. The company may exercise the powers under the Act and rules made thereunder with regard to the keeping of a foreign register; and the Board may (subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder) make and vary such regulations as it may think fit respecting the keeping of any such register.
102. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, hundis, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments, and all receipts for monies paid to the company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, by such person and in such manner as the Board shall from time to time by resolution determine.
103. Every director present at any meeting of the Board or of a committee thereof shall sign his name in a book to be kept for that purpose.

In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Board, if any, shall have a second or casting vote.
106. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Board; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act for a meeting of the Board, the continuing directors or director may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.

107. i) The Chairperson of the Company shall be the Chairperson at meetings of the Board. In his absence or his unwillingness, the Board may elect a Chairperson of its meetings and determine the period for which he is to hold office.
- ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within time specified under the Act & Rule made thereunder after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the directors present may choose one of their number to be Chairperson of the meeting.
108. i) The Board may, subject to the provisions of the Act and Rules made thereunder, delegate any of its powers to Committees consisting of such member or members of its body as it thinks fit.
- ii) Any Committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations that may be imposed on it by the Board.
- iii) The participation of directors in a meeting of the Committee may be either in person or through video conferencing or audio visual means or teleconferencing, as may be prescribed by the Rules or permitted under the Act.
109. i) A Committee may elect a Chairperson of its meetings unless the Board, while constituting a Committee, has appointed a Chairperson of such Committee.
- (ii) If no such Chairperson is elected, or if at any meeting the Chairperson is not present within time specified under the Act & Rule made thereunder after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the members present may choose one of their members to be Chairperson of the meeting.
110. i) A Committee may meet and adjourn as it required under the Act and or applicable regulations.
- ii) Questions arising at any meeting of a Committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present.
- iii) In case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson of the Committee shall have a second or casting vote.
111. All acts done in any meeting of the Board or of a Committee thereof or by any person acting as a director, shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such directors or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified or that his or their appointment had terminated, be as valid as if every such director or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a director.
112. Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing, signed, whether manually or by secure electronic mode, by a majority of the members of the Board or of a Committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Board or Committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Board or Committee, duly convened and held.

POWERS OF DIRECTORS

113. The management of the business of the Company shall be vested in the Board and the Board may exercise all such powers, and do all such acts and things, as the Company is by the memorandum of association or otherwise authorized to exercise and do, and, not hereby or by the statute or otherwise directed or required to be exercised or done by the Company in general meeting but subject nevertheless to the provisions of the Act and other laws and of the memorandum of association and these Articles and to any regulations, not being inconsistent with the memorandum of association and these Articles or the Act, from time to time made by the Company in general meeting provided that no such regulation shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such regulation had not been made.

BORROWING POWERS

114. Subject to the provisions of the Act, the Companies (Acceptance of Deposits) Rules, 2014, and these Articles and without prejudice to the other powers conferred by these Articles the Directors shall have the power from time to time at their discretion by a resolution of the Board to borrow any sum of money for the purposes of the Company.
115. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Directors may raise and secure payment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respect as they think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures or other securities, or any mortgage or charge or other security on the undertaking of the whole or any part of the Company (present and future).
116. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles any bonds, debentures or other securities issued or to be issued by the Company shall be under the control of the Directors. Who may issue them upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and for such consideration as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the Company.
117. Bonds, debentures or other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the Company and the person to whom the same may be issued.
118. The Board shall have all the powers which are prescribed under the Act.
119. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, any bonds, debentures or other securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and with any privileges and conditions as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares and otherwise:
120. Provided in particular that debentures with the right to allotment of or conversion into shares shall not be issued except with the consent of the Company in a general meeting or through Postal Ballot subject to provisions of the Act.
121. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, if the Directors or any of them or any other person shall incur or be about to incur any liability, whether as principal or surety for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Directors may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of assets of the Company (present and future) by way of indemnity to secure the Directors or person so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability.

MANAGING DIRECTOR AND WHOLE TIME DIRECTOR

122. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and of these Articles, the Company in a general meeting or the Board may from time to time appoint or re-appoint one or more of their body to be Managing Director or Managing Directors (in which expression shall be included Joint or Deputy Managing Director) or Whole-time Director or Whole-time Directors of the Company, for such term not specified years at a time as prescribed under the Act & rules made thereunder and upon such terms and conditions as they may think fit, from time to time (subject to the provisions of any contract between him or them and the Company) remove or dismiss him or them from office and appoint another or others in his or their place or places. Further the Managing Director as stated in the Act & these Articles can hold the position of the Chairman of the Board for the better governance of the Company.
123. Subject to the provisions of the Act, and of these Articles, the office of the Managing Director is not subject to retirement by rotation under these articles. However, he shall be counted in determining the number of retiring directors. He shall, subject to the provisions of any contract between him and the Company, be subject to the same provisions as to the resignation and removal of the other Directors of the Company and he shall ipso facto and immediately cease to be a Managing Director if he ceases to hold the office of Director for any cause,
124. Subject to the provisions of the Act and of these Articles, the Company or the Board may from time to time entrust to and confer upon a Managing Director or Managing Directors or Whole-time Director or Whole-time Directors for the time being, such of the power exercisable under these Articles or otherwise by the Directors as they may think fit and may confer such powers for such time and to be exercised for such objects and purposes and upon such terms and they may subject to the provisions of the Act and of these Articles confer such powers either collaterally with, or to the exclusion of or in substitution for all, or any of the powers of the Directors in that behalf and may from time to time revoke, withdraw, alter or vary all or any of such powers.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, MANAGER, COMPANY SECRETARY OR CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

125. Subject to the provisions of the Act,—
- i) A chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer may be appointed by the Board of Directors for such term, at such remuneration and upon such conditions as it may think fit; and any chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer so appointed may be removed by means of a resolution of the Board; the Board may appoint one or more Chief Executive officers for its multiple business.
 - ii) A director may be appointed as chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.
126. A provision of the Act or these articles requiring or authorizing a thing to be done by or to a director and chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting both as director and as, or in place of, chief executive officer, manager, company secretary or chief financial officer.

THE SEAL

128. The company in general meeting may declare dividends, but no dividend shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board.
129. Subject to the provisions of the Act & Rules made thereunder, the Board may from time to time pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to it to be justified by the profits earned by the company.
130. The Board of directors may, before recommending any dividend, set aside out of the profits of the company such sums as it thinks fit as a reserve or reserves which shall, at the discretion of the Board, be applicable for any purpose to which the profits of the company may be properly applied, including provision for meeting contingencies or for equalizing dividends; and pending such application, may, at the like discretion, either be employed in the business of the company or be invested in such investments (other than shares of the company) as the Board may, from time to time, thinks fit. The Board may also carry forward any profits which it may consider necessary not to divide, without setting them aside as a reserve.
131. i) Subject to the rights of persons, if any, entitled to shares with special rights as to dividends, all dividends shall be declared and paid according to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares in respect whereof the dividend is paid, but if and so long as nothing is paid upon any of the shares in the company, dividends may be declared and paid according to the amounts of the shares.
- ii) No amount paid or credited as paid on a share in advance of calls shall be treated for the purposes of this regulation as paid on the share.
- iii) All dividends shall be apportioned and paid proportionately to the amounts paid or credited as paid on the shares during any portion or portions of the period in respect of which the dividend is paid; but if any share is issued on terms providing that it shall rank for dividend as from a particular date such share shall rank for dividend accordingly.
132. The Board of Directors may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the company on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the company.
133. Any dividend, interest or other monies payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by ECS, cheque or warrant sent through the post directed to the registered address of the holder or, in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of that one of the joint holders who is first named on the register of members, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Every such cheque or warrant shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.
134. Any one of two or more joint holders of a share may give effective receipts for any dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of such share.

135. Notice of any dividend that may have been declared shall be given to the persons entitled to share therein in the manner mentioned in the Act.
136. No dividend shall bear interest against the company.
137. Dividend, so declared will be paid within the statutory period mentioned in the Act & rules made thereunder. Where the Company has declared a dividend but which has not been paid or claimed. The same to be transferred to a special account to be opened/operated by the Company in that behalf in any scheduled bank within such period, as may be prescribed in the Act.
138. Any money transferred to the unpaid dividend account of the Company which remains unpaid or unclaimed for a period of seven years from the date of such transfer, shall be transferred by the Company to the Investor Education and Protection Fund established under the Act.
139. No unclaimed or unpaid dividend shall be forfeited by the Board of Directors until the claim becomes barred by law.

CAPITALISATION OF PROFITS

140. i) The company, subject to the provisions contained in the Act, in general meeting may, upon the recommendation of the Board, resolve—
- a) that it is desirable to capitalize any part of the amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the company's reserve accounts, or to the credit of the profit and loss account, or otherwise available for distribution; and
 - b) that such sum be accordingly set free for distribution in the manner specified in clause (ii) amongst the members who would have been entitled thereto, if distributed by way of dividend and in the same proportions.
- ii) The sum aforesaid shall not be paid in cash but shall be applied, subject to the provision contained in clause (iii), either in or towards—
- a) paying up any amounts for the time being unpaid on any shares held by such members respectively;
 - b) paying up in full, unissued shares of the company to be allotted and distributed, credited as fully paid-up, to and amongst such members in the proportions aforesaid, by name of Bonus shares or otherwise
